Associate Professor Brîndușa-Mariana Amălăncei, PhD

Brîndușa-Mariana Amălăncei completed a PhD in philology in 2006 at Al. I. Cuza University of Iași, Romania, and one Communication sciences in 2015, at the same university.

Brîndușa-Mariana Amălăncei is Dean of the Faculty of Letters, Vasile Alecsandri University of Bacău and a member of the Department of Romanian Language and Literature and Communication Sciences.

Her track record shows her scientific interest in the following areas: linguistics, rhetoric, communication and public relations.

She is an active member of INTERSTUD research centre (Interdisciplinary Centre for the Study of Contemporary Discursive Forms), at the Faculty of Letters, Vasile Alecsandri University of Bacău. She participated in more than 40 national and international conferences, published 3 books, 2 coursebooks and more than 45 articles in specialized journals or conference proceedings.

Other significant achievements: Grant manager for Access to Career. Remedial Pathway for Students in Socio-humanities (ARES) project (2019-2021); member of several funded projects at Vasile Alecsandri University of Bacău; member of several organizing committees for international conferences at the Faculty of Letters.

Address

Vasile Alecsandri University of Bacău

Faculty of Letters

Department of Romanian Language and Literature and Communication Sciences

8 Spiru Haret Street

600114 Bacău, Romania

email: amalancei.brindusa@ub.ro

https://www.ub.ro/litere/files/B._Amalancei_Lista_cu_lucrari_2023.pdf