Assoc. Prof. Mamadou Abdou Babou Ngom, PhD is a lecturer at the English Department, Faculty of the Humanities at Cheikh Anta Diop University of Dakar, Senegal. He is an Associate Professor of Anglophone African literature and is English teacher by training. The areas of his academic interest are as follows: African literature in English, coloniality and deconiality, gender studies, trauma fiction, migrant and diasporic literature, prison life writing, Halal fiction, critical feminist theory, literary theory, psychoanalytic literature criticism.

Assoc. Prof. Mamadou Abdou Babou Ngom, PhD is the author of multiple research articles and books such as A Streak of Unfulfilled Expectations: Relationships, politics, betrayal…, a novel published in December 2018, JustFiction Edition, ISBN: 978-613-7-40594-9, Mauritius, as well as Thèse publiée chez les éditions Publibook (Paris, France) ; « Représentation de l'Afrique du Sud raciale et postraciale dans les romans de John Maxwell Coetzee » (Publication of my doctoral dissertation in book form). ISBN : 978-2-342-04448-5. The topic of his doctoral dissertation is Representation of Racial and Post-racial South Africa in J.M.Coetzee's Fiction. He also holds several academic accolades, such as:

-2020-present: Editorial Board member on English Language and Literature Studies (ELLS)

-Publication Certificate from International Journal of Advanced Academic Studies (IJAAS)

-Best Paper Award from The International Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences for "A trip down memory Lane: An Analysis of the Multifaceted Ravages of Colonialism in Dusklands and Foe by J.M.Coetzee", Vol.4, Issue 3, Apr-May 2015, 35-48

-Best Paper Award from International Journal of English and Literature (IJEL) for "Education as a Stepping-Stone to Push Back against the Strictures of Patriarchy and Ritual Murder: An Examination of Unity Dow's The Screaming of the Innocent" (2017), Vol.8, Issue 1, Feb. 2018