Assoc. Prof. Irina Ivanova, PhD, is a lecturer in English language teaching at the Department of English Studies in Shumen University. She teaches a number of disciplines in Bachelor's, Master's, and doctoral programmes in the field of ELT and teacher education, and supervises trainees' school-based internship. She is involved in in-service teacher training, development and certification at the Department of Information, Qualification and Lifelong Learning in Varna. Over the years, she has worked on different projects in the field of teacher education, such as: A Baseline survey of pre-service English language teacher education in Bulgaria, British Council, 2002; Quality in Foreign Language teaching: Assessment Criteria for Secondary Schools, British council, 2007; Standards for internal evaluation of students in the secondary school, Bulgarian Ministry of Education, 2010; Grundtvig project Coaching for Adult Learners and Educators 2014-2016; Erasmus + projects: Schools: Future Labs 2014-2017, and CRADLE 2017-2020. She is a member of IATEFL and member of the Bulgarian Association of Teachers of English. Her research interests and publications are in the fields of foreign language teaching, linguistics, language acquisition, academic literacy, continuing professional development of teachers.